

Entry Level Staff Accountant (Full-Time)

GMS Surgent CPAs & Advisors is currently in search of a qualified entry level staff accountant to join our Certified Public Accounting and Advisory team. This position requires a 4 year degree in accounting, with a start date of October (post-graduation). An ideal candidate is team oriented, demonstrates a solid work ethic and motivation to succeed, and enjoys independent problem solving. We do not require 150 credit hours.

In addition, the candidate should have critical thinking skills, the ability to manage multiple tasks and the capacity to effectively communicate (verbal & written) in a fast-paced environment with aggressive deadlines.

Top Reasons to Work with GMS Surgent

- Internal growth encouraged
- Work closely with a diverse client base
- Collaborative work environment
- Little or no travel
- Competitive salary & comprehensive benefit package

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Provide timely, high quality client services that meet or exceed client expectations.
- Research complex tax and accounting issues, in addition to determining alternative solutions.
- Become proficient in the preparation of corporate, individual, partnership, and fiduciary tax returns.

Position Requirements

- Major – Accounting
- 4 year degree in Accounting
- Minimum GPA of 3.0

Please feel free to visit our website, www.gmssurgent.com, to learn more about our firm. Send your cover letter, resume and salary requirements to resumes@gmssurgent.com

About GMS Surgent

•••

At GMS Surgent, we are dedicated to furthering education. In a collaborative, team-oriented working environment our people continuously strive for growth and achievement. We never settle in reaching our fullest potential.

In a business focused on numbers, we know that it is our people that add up to the true value of GMS Surgent. We take pride in recruiting individuals who demonstrate outstanding academic and professional achievement – but it is not always just the credentials on paper that catch our eye. We look to hire people that are motivated and driven to reach their full potential.