

Brian Gallagher Honored at Philadelphia Business Journal's Corporate Giving Awards

PHILADELPHIA – Brian Gallagher was recently honored by the Philadelphia Business Journal for its charitable involvement at the 2015 Corporate Giving Awards. Brian was recognized in the hands-on initiatives category for his work with the BLOCS Organization, a program that is committed to giving children access to a high quality, values based education in Philadelphia area Catholic schools. They provide tuition assistance to families who desire a Catholic education regardless of race, religion or ability to pay.

In 2008, Brian Gallagher was announced Treasurer of Business Leadership Organized for Catholic Schools and he also serves on the board's executive committee. With the support of the Board, friends, and donors, BLOCS endeavors to increase the number of scholarships distributed each year and help strengthen the schools for future generations and for the good of the Philadelphia region.

"Our philanthropic endeavors are their own reward, but it's always nice to be recognized, especially if it might help encourage greater support of the BLOCS initiative." Brian Gallagher, Managing Member at GMS Surgent.
